GAMES TODAY.

Louisville at Washington. Pittsburgh at Baltimore. Cincinnati at Boston. Chicago at Brooklyn. St. Louis at New York. Cleveland at Philadelphia. Two games will be played in each city.

Four weeks more of ball playing and the season of 1897 will be at an end. In that time many changes in the standing of clubs can and will take place. The race for the championship will be between the present leaders—Boston and Baltimore. The Orioles have the greatest number of games to play, and Manager Hanlon will play every one he possibly can. He starts today two points behind the Bostonians, and having two games with Pittsburgh, his chances for winning both are better than the Senators', as they have the Cincinnati as opponents.

The New Yorks have now very little if any chance to improve their present standing, but Joyce will make a gallant struggle to finish a very close third. He will have an opportunity of keeping either one of the leaders out of first place, in that he will play both Boston and Baltimore another series. He will meet the Seleites on their own grounds, while the Orioles must go to Gotham to contest with the Giants. It is thought that these series will practically settle the championship.

The Cincinnati cannot better their standing, and they will do well to hold their present position, as Cleveland has started on their annual Garrison finish, and may give Buck's Braves a merry chase. The Chicago are at the head of the 400 list. Only 15 points separate them from the Senators, who are still in eleventh place. The race between the bunch will be almost as interesting as the championship. They will battle for first division honors, and the next best place—at the top of the second division.

The Senators have the chance of years to go to the front or to better their standing of last year. Of course, they will have hard work and must show a big improvement over the game they put up on Saturday, when they saved themselves from defeat by a tie. Sixth place is within the possibilities, and if Washington is not in that position at the end of the season, it will be poor management on the part of the club owners to keep a team that would strengthen the team in its weak points. With a little bit of sudden drafting from the Toronto farm the Senators can be made a first division club, a place which the representation of the country's capital ought to occupy, if for no other reason than that the baseball club here is liberally patronized.

The start for the first division can be made today. The Senators play two games this afternoon with the Louisville and the St. Louis on Saturday will be played off tomorrow. All three should be won by the locals if there is good judgment used on the field at all times. Three victories will send the Senators up the line at a lively rate, and there would be another term in eleventh place. The question remains, however, will they get together and do it?

Through the kindness of President Pullman ladies will be admitted free today, and as tomorrow is regular ladies' day the fair fans will have a feast of ball games. But then they are constant and loyal.

Diamond Dust.

Stafford has a sore foot. The St. Louis played at Hoboken yesterday. The figure seven marked six of Saturday's scores. George Yeager has been returned to Boston by Providence. McCready heads the league in sacrifice hitting with twenty-five. Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia have each made over 1,000 hits. Frank Hancock quotes President Young as saying of three trips for each team next season.

DUKE-MCDONALD FIGHT.

Both of the Men in Prime Condition for the Bout.
The Duke-McDonald fight will take place this morning at Steubenville's suburban roadhouse. The preliminary event will be pulled off promptly at 10:30 o'clock, and is an eight-round go. It will be immediately followed by the main event—a twenty-round go. Both men are here and are ready for the fray. McDonald is most thought of, and as the men have already fought a draw they ought to put up a rattling go.

Duke announces that should he be successful in defeating McDonald he will be ready to meet any welterweight in the country. He will be handled at the ring side by George Pearce, of New Orleans, and Wal Bond and James O'Hara, of Baltimore. McDonald will be taken care of by Pat O'Connor and Hugh Lyons, of this city. Young Dougherty, of the Washington Athletic Club, will box Arthur Jones. Races will run from the end of the H street line.

Among the Boxers.

Charley McKeever and Young Griffo will meet in a fifteen-round bout at Athens, Pa., tomorrow evening.
Joe Butler and Tom Carey will meet in Philadelphia tonight.
"Kid" Lavigne is to be matched against Joe Walcott for a purse of $4,000. The fight will take place before the Occidental Club, of San Francisco, about the middle of October.
George Siler, who was referee in the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight, will do the same work in the McCoy-Ryan fight.
"Mysterious Billy" Smith says that if Tommy Ryan defeats "Kid" McCoy when they meet at Syracuse next week he will fight him. Should McCoy come out victorious Smith will then sail for England and engage in a contest with either Dick Burge or Tom Cramer.

BRAZILIAN BALM!

The Great South American Balsam,
FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL USE.

CURES

Coughs, Colds, Croup and LaGrippe
LIKE MAGIC.

RADICALLY CURES CATARRH.

COLD IN THE HEAD
Is acute inflammation and swelling of the mucous membrane which contains the Nerve of Smell. This organ is a long ribbed membrane and hangs from the roof of the nasal passage in folds, as seen in Fig. 2. When this condition becomes chronic it is permanent. It is called CATARRH. The folds become swollen into a solid mass, so the air in breathing cannot circulate between them; hence the loss of smell. The Catarrhal microbes make its appearance, causing a multitude of small ulcers between these folds. The pus from these ulcers is very poisonous and soon impregnates the whole mucous surface of the nose, head and throat with the disease. Medical works show cases where the female has become a corrupt mass of ulcers. It not infrequently involves the whole bronchial passage to the lungs, causing consumption and death. It will be seen that nothing can relieve Catarrh which does not reach to the seat of the disease between these folds of the Olfactory organ, and cleanse and heal these ulcers. BRAZILIAN BALM is the only known remedy that will cure Catarrh. It is a Balm. It will heal any old case. Smell a solution of the Balm and warm water, as strong as you can bear, up the nose, from the hand or through a Nasal Douche, as in Fig. 1. Thus, as water will not run up hill, hold the head down, as in Fig. 2, giving it time to work in between the folds. Do this three or four times a day. You will soon experience relief, and if faithful, in a few weeks the folds will be opened, the swelling gone, the ulcers healed and the sense of smell and taste restored. A 50-cent bottle contains two weeks treatment, and the $1.00 bottle a month's treatment. Catarrh never cures itself. Brazilian Balm is guaranteed to cure Hay Fever. Gives surprising relief in Consumption and other cases.
